About TK Photography

TK Photography is a local professional photography company operated by Tim Kern, a lifetime resident in both Charlotte and Sarasota County. Tim Kern has been cleared by the Jessica Lunsford Act Level 2 background screening required of all persons who work with children in the state of Florida (the same clearance level as all teachers are required to have). TK Photography is a certified company with the state of Florida. TK Photography has been operational in good standing for over five years providing sports league photography, school photography, and custom family photography in Sarasota and Charlotte County. TK Photography's mission is to capture moments that will create memories which will last a lifetime. As a local small business TK Photography is 100% dedicated to providing superior customer service and excellent photography to each family with whom they have the opportunity to work.
